CASTLEMAINE TOWN TOUR
Let the locals fill you in on the secrets of this goldfields town with a fascinating past and present...

STOP 1 – MARKET BUILDING
To begin you should be at the Market Building, in Mostyn Street, Castlemaine, which is also the Information Centre.

There, for a small deposit, you can borrow an MP3 player with this and other tours already loaded, or you can download the tour from www.visitgoldfields.com (link: Audio Tours)

This Castlemaine walking tour is about a kilometre and takes about 80 minutes.

There’s an optional extra walk to the Bourke & Wills monument (Stop 3), for those who’d like a stiff climb to a good view. If you’re doing this please add 15 minutes to the length of this tour.

STOP 2 – THEATRE ROYAL
From the Market Building, facing out, turn right and walk up Mostyn Street about 100 metres to the corner of Hargreaves Street. The Theatre Royal is across Hargreaves Street, and half a block down to the left.

STOP 3 – BURKE & WILLS MONUMENT
From the Theatre Royal, go back up to the corner of Mostyn Street and turn right. Walk about 150 metres till you’re past the shops where you can see the monument, an obelisk on the hill at the top of Mostyn Street.

If you wish to walk to the monument please add about 15 minutes to the length of this tour:

STOP 4 – TO MISS HERON’S HOUSE
Walk back down Mostyn Street to Hargreaves Street and turn right, walking up the left side to the next intersection, Lyttleton Street, and there you stop.

Miss Herron’s house is the corner house, now Herron’s Gallery.

STOP 5 – THE GOLD WARDEN’S OFFICE AND THE LOCK-UP
From Herron’s Gallery cross Lyttleton Street, and it’s the first building on your left once you cross Lyttleton Street.

STOP 6 – ECOLOGICAL TIMELINE MURAL
From the lock-up, track back down Hargreaves Street and turn right into Lyttleton Street. You pass the Supreme Court, School of Mines and Town Hall on your right, and across from the Town Hall is the old Imperial Hotel.

Turn right at the second street on your right – Frederick Street – and just past the old Drill Hall car park turn left into Mechanics Lane. Fifty metres down you’ll find the mural, on the left, opposite the library.

STOP 7 – THE MECHANICS INSTITUTE AND LIBRARY
At the mural you will be beside the entrance to the library. Go to the original front of the library, which is in Barker Street. On the front wall you’ll see the plaque from the building’s opening.

STOP 8 – AGITATION HILL
From the library walk down Barker Street, past the original Castlemaine Telegraph Station and the Post Office. At the Post Office turn right into Lyttleton Street.

Cross to the left side of Lyttleton Street via the bust of Harry Lawson (in the middle of the road); then walk further up Lyttleton Street past the Art Gallery.

Immediately after the gallery, turn left into the drive that runs below the Uniting Church. Walk down that drive to the far end, then down the steps to Mostyn Street.

From the bottom of the steps, it’s straight across Mostyn Street and in the gate of the Christ Church. Then you follow the path up to the front of the church. There you will be on Agitation Hill.

STOP 9 – PATTERSON MONUMENT
From the Christ Church walk back to Mostyn St, then down the hill to Barker Street. There, with care, cross Barker Street to the Patterson monument on the corner.

STOP 10 – THE MARKET BUILDING
It’s a short walk back to the Market Building now, up Mostyn Street or through Victory Park.
